DOANE WINS BATTLE AGAINST EDMUNDSTON

Neither Pitcher Was Hit Hard, but Leaders Used Sticks at Critical Stages.

COLTS WERE OUTPLAYED

Game Was Hard-Fought, Though and Final Outcome Was Always in Doubt.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, VA., August 23.—The Tigers outplayed the Colts this afternoon, which, in connection with superb pitching by Doane, enabled them to win by a score of 2 to 0. The gams was one of the hardest fought of the season, and was won by timely hits at times when runs resulted. Both pitchers did fine work. Edmundston was wild, hitting Pitcher Doane twice.
The locals secured only five hits, but these came with men on bases, one of them being a three-bagger by Holland. The score:
